THE NATION'S CAPITAL.

Views of Prominent Indianapolis Concerning the Present Administration.

They Are Sure It Will Ultimately Be a Democratic One in the Full Sense of the Term.

THE ADMINISTRATION.

What Some Prominent Indianapolis Think of the President—Other News.

Special to the Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Bayless W. Hanna, preparing for Persia, sharing a sofa with Senator Hillgrass, at Willard's, was disposed to take a cheerful view of the situation. I am quite sure that this will ultimately be a Democratic administration in the full sense of the term. In a conversation with Mr. Cleveland, not long ago, I observed: "Before you, Mr. President, are the difficulties that confronted Thomas Jefferson. The Federalists had long been in power and the offices were stocked with members of that party. The situation was not only embarrassing but promised disaster to his administration. Purposely as well as perhaps unconsciously they sought to bring it into ridicule and disgrace. What did he do? As President of the United States he made short work of their official existence, and filled their places with men whose political thoughts harmonized with his own broad ideas of government." Mr. Cleveland arose, laughed, looked out of the window for a moment and then returned to his chair with an expressive, "You've got me down to a pretty fine point. No, no, to my mind there is no question but that this is to be a Democratic administration with all that that implies."

—TILL ANOTHER VIEW.

Faulkner, of Ripley, who, as Chairman of Mr. Voorhees' Committee, is moving constantly among the departments, divides the blame of tardiness in the matter of country postoffices with the Congressmen. "A clerk showed me to-day," said Mr. Faulkner, "evidence of a large number of vacancies in the Fourth Congressional District of Indiana. In every instance the failure to appoint a successor is the absence of a recommendation by the Congressman. If the Congressmen would do their duty, I am satisfied that there would be less cause of complaint against General Vilas."

FILLS THE BILL.

That Hoosier opinion is divided regarding the attitude of the administration is a fact impossible to disguise, but I have found no one who does not speak well of Colonel Hughes East, as he appears in the part assigned him by the appointing power, with rapture and delight. By the visiting statesmen from Indiana he is only known in love and named in praise. A perfect master of the situation, his duties yield him the highest order of pleasure. He measures every applicant at a glance, and disposes of him with sufficient diplomacy to have mastered the Geneva arbitration. I am satisfied that he could bring about a complete understanding between Gladstone and the Car, conduct to the spot—like one of Casper's revivifying cocktails, and never fails to turn disappointment into a sustaining hope of ultimate triumph. One heard no whispered suspicion against him, and he stands equally high with other private secretaries.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

I was in a street car lately when Mr. Lamar entered. A gentleman approached him warmly, and extending his hand he said: "This is the first opportunity I have had, Mr. Secretary, to congratulate you on your appointment. I am a candidate for no office," he continued. "Hush," ejaculated the Secretary, interrupting him, "a candidate for no office and in Washington? Keep that to yourself or they may arrest you for vagrancy."

AN OPINION OF PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

I have had a long talk with Congressman Cobb, of which I will try and give the substance. "In my judgment," he said, "Mr. Cleveland will do more toward bringing the Government back to first principles than any President the country has had for forty years. Realizing the magnitude of the work, he chooses to move slow. He was unacquainted with the public man, and he is addressing himself to the work of learning them. His first duty is to determine upon whom he can rely. As yet he has found, I suppose, but very few in the matter of recommending appointments. The signatures of some Congressmen frequently appear upon the papers of five or six different applicants for the same office. That, of course, destroys that particular Congressman's influence. Vacancies will be made and filled more rapidly after the people learn the President's disposition to proceed carefully, and that recommendations must be made in dead earnest. I have already seen enough of Mr. Cleveland to lead me to the belief that he will be remembered as one of the ablest of the Presidents."

AN INDIANAPOLIS JOURNALIST'S OPINION.

I called at the Postoffice Department to-day and had a talk with Charles Walker, one of the Indianapolis press. He looks a trifle sterner and better than before coming to Washington. This life, notwithstanding the incidental anxiety, does not prove forrows in the face, and office-holding seems to agree with the office-holder. I have heard in my time a great many merchants boast of having come up from the field or the shop. I have never met a successful merchant who of his own free will and accord would return to the toil of the field or the shop. Mr. Walker told me that every Republican would ultimately go, and that the change would be made as fast as it could for the good of the service. I have heard, indirectly, that Mr. Walker does not contemplate remaining in the event of Mr. Baile's election. He takes a very cheerful view of the future, and a card asking for his resignation will be cheerfully received.

PAYING THE PRINTER A PROOF OF GREATNESS.

These letters floating around in the press signed Murray are written by one of the most successful correspondents in this city. I was talking to him to-day about Indiana Congressmen, when he mentioned that he once tried the experiment of a Democratic paper in South Bend, Ind. I asked him if he knew Ford, the Representative from that District.

"Yes, well," was the answer. "Ford was the Democrat in St. Joe County who came to my office. He remained no longer than a minute, but in that time gave me a word full of encouragement and a $5 note to pay for the insertion of his professional card. He is a square, unpretentious man, governed by his judgment. The Democrats of that Congressional District would have met with better success had they discovered him earlier."

NEWS OF NATIONAL INTEREST.

Mr. Hanna Requests a Change to the Argentine Mission—Appointments—The Dolphin to be Given Another Trial Trip.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Mr. Hanna, the recently appointed minister to Persia, has requested a transfer to the Argentine Mission, on account of the health of his wife, which will not permit such a journey as that to Persia. The matter is now under consideration.

The President made the following appointments to-day: Thomas H. Simms, to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of Arkansas, vice Henry M. Cooper, suspended; Charles B. Staples, to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the Twelfth District of Pennsylvania, vice Edward H. Chase, suspended; Richard F. Dodge, to be Collector of Customs for the district of Salem and Beverly, Mass.; Richard L. Rundbelt, to be Collector of Customs for the district of Wisconsin, Me.

The President to-day appointed the following named Presidential Postmasters: John C. Scenna, at Mechanicsburg, O., vice T. E. Shepherd, commission expired; Cary T. Pope, at Hillsboro, O., vice J. W. Patterson, suspended; Norval Blackburn, at Decatur, Ind., vice Shapper Peterson, resigned.

The change in the Postoffice at Hillsboro, Ohio, was made upon the Inspector's report, showing shortages in the accounts on two or three different occasions, which, although immediately made good, were a violation of duty, and tantamount to a fixed policy of the Department, demanding his removal. His removal was also recommended by the Inspector.

When Secretary Whitney was informed at Cleveland of the accident to the Dolphin on her trial trip, Tuesday, he immediately ordered another trial to take place on Monday next.

The delegation from the Fourth Assembly District of New York, who arrived in Washington last evening to present to Hon. S. S. Cox and to the President a series of resolutions recently adopted in New York City, held a meeting this morning in a parlor at Willard's Hotel, and organized by selecting Judge John Henry McCarthy as Chairman and William Geoghegan as Secretary. Mr. Cox had been sent for, and was present. Judge McCarthy stated that the object of the meeting was to urge Mr. Cox to decline the duty and, tantamount to a fixed policy of the Department, demanding his removal. His removal was also recommended by the Inspector.

that the firm had paid George B. Goff, of this city, eight cents per pound for securing the contract for them. Mr. Goff will testify tomorrow.

The monthly statistical publication of the Agricultural Department for May, which will be issued in two or three days, contains comprehensive statement of wages paid to farm laborers in all parts of the country, based on what Mr. Dodge, the Statistician of the department, believes to be entirely trustworthy data. Eastern States, $23.30; Middle States, $23.10; Southern States, $14.27; Western States, $22.26; California, $38.75. The amount of labor seeking employment in agriculture at the present time is unusually large, yet there are not many localities in almost every section of the country in which there is more or less complaint of scarcity. The report closes with the practical suggestion that in the manufacturing towns and cities offices should be opened by either the labor unions or by benevolent citizens, through which communication may be opened between unemployed labor and the agricultural and farming laborer, so that a reputable and worthy city laborer may have the means of making known his true character instead of starting out on foot at a venture subject to the risk of being mistaken for a professional tramp.

The sales of Colonel Stephen C. Lyford, of the United States army, who died at Frankfurt Arsenal last day, and whose body was incinerated Tuesday, were brought to this city to-day for interment at Arlington. The remains were met at the depot by ex-Secretary Lincoln, General McClellan, General Berney, General E. St. Mary's Church, Alexandria, conducted the services at the grave.

Six clerks and one messenger in the office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury were dismissed to-day, and the salaries of the three principal clerks were reduced, in order to bring the expenditures of the office within the limit of the appropriations for current fiscal year ending June 30. The changes will lessen the current expenses of the office about $1,200. Hereafter leave of absence will be granted to the clerks and employees of the Treasury Department for more than thirty days for each year of service reckoning back to the last leave of absence granted for the full time they worked. All absentees for any cause whatever, during the time within which the right to a leave has occurred, will be deducted.

An army detachment consisting of Surgeon General Murray, Inspector General Baird, Assistant Adjutant General O. D. Greene, General H. J. Hunt, General Ayres and Lieutenant Colonel Hudson, called on the President and urged the retention of Miss Sumner, daughter of General Sumner, as Postmaster at Charlottesville, N. C.

GENERAL GRANT.

His General Condition Not at all Improved.

NEW YORK, May 14.—Yesterday was acknowledged to be a bad day for General Grant. He suffered with his throat and could only speak with difficulty. The afternoon brought him no relief, even though it brought Dr. Douglas, and it was not until early this morning that he fell into a slumber superinduced by an extra quantity of morphia. This morning he awoke feeling a little easier, but not at all improved in his general condition. Dr. Douglas's statements mean simply that the General is not progressing in the same ratio as hitherto. The weather has a very depressing effect on the General's spirits.

When the Doctor left the house he said: "The disease is still there, of course, but the increased pain of the last two days has not been so much the result of increase in the disease as it has been of neuralgia complications induced by the frightful weather of the week. The General is better to-day; he looks brighter, and has this afternoon been working easily upon his book."

The Exposition Inter-State Drill.

NEW ORLEANS, May 14.—The third day of the Exposition Inter-State competitive drill opened with artillery inspection. The Galveston Battery drilled first, Washington Artillery second, Louisiana Field Battery third and Indianapolis Artillery last. The Galvestons failed to finish the programme in time. Washington Artillery with the exception of a few individuals made a perfect drill and the Louisiana Field Battery did equally well and the Indianapolis Artillery made a good showing.

Company F Louisville Legion drilled forty minutes. A Lieutenant slipped and resumed his position immediately, and a gun fell in fixing a stack. They made a very good showing.

The Mobile Rifles were greeted with loud cheers. They put up a very good drill, which lasted fifty-three minutes. This closed the drill, with the exception of the individual contest.

To-morrow there will be a sham battle. On Saturday individual contests will take place, and the decision of the judges be announced and prizes awarded.

The Claverius Murder Trial.

RICHMOND, Va., May 14.—In the trial of Claverius, for murder, John Williamson, about eleven years old, testified that on Sunday, March 15, he and two other boys were at the reservoir, and while looking through a hole in the fence he saw a gold watch-key, with a little ring attached. He picked it up and took it home and gave it to his father, Charles Williams, an older brother, testified to his brother finding the key. The ring on the key was sprung out as if forced open. Willie Thurston, another boy, corroborated the testimony of the Williamson boys as to the finding of the key.

National Commercial Convention.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 14.—Delegates to the National Commercial Convention which will be held in this city on the 19th, 20th and 21st inst., who wish to secure the low railway rates agreed upon for delegates, must present to the ticket agents their certificates of appointment from their respective constituencies, whether appointed by commercial bodies, Governors of States or Mayors of cities.

Money Needed for the Plymouth Sufferers.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 14.—Over 150 families in Plymouth are now receiving aid, and money is still badly needed, as there are many hundreds of widows and orphans who must be provided for. Efforts will be made to raise a fund of $75,000, to be used for the benefit of the destitute orphans for several years to come. Three more deaths occurred this afternoon.

OLD WORLD NEWS.

In Forming the New Russo-Afghan Frontier Penjeh is to be Included in the Territory Allotted to Russia.

Negotiations Between England and Turkey Regarding the Occupation of Egypt—Trial of the Alleged Dynamiters.

THE NEW

Russo-Afghan Frontier—Penjeh to Be Included Within the Territory Allotted to Russia.

LONDON, May 14.—The negotiations which have been resumed in London between Russia and England respecting the Afghan question are making satisfactory progress. Some further explanations are still necessary from both sides before a ratification of the general agreement already reached can be secured, but it is not believed that there will delay a final adjustment. M. Lissar, the chief of the Russian Commission on the Afghan frontier question, expects to be at any moment instructed to proceed forthwith to Asia to assist in the work of delimiting the frontier.

The Standard says: "It is rumored that the Russian reply raises a difficulty in regard to the basis of delimitation. It is expected that a commission of officers will be appointed to examine the northwest frontier of India, with a view of taking into consideration measures of defense. Afghan merchants residing at Mary have petitioned the House to allow an Afghan agency there."

A dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Political Correspondence, Vienna, says: "The basis of the Anglo-Russian agreement appears to consist in the abolition of the neutral zone, in favor of a direct boundary between Russia and Afghanistan. Russian Government circles think this will secure lasting peace, the neutral zone having been a constant source of discussion."

A dispatch from Tirpuri to the Daily Telegraph says: "The people of Afghanistan expect that the English will avenge the defeat of the Afghans by the Russians or indemnify the Amer for his losses. The dispatch also says that Yutane Sarik is head man and represents Russian rule in Penjeh. Earl Granville is communicating with M. De Giers in regard to keeping order on the new Russo-Afghan frontier. It is reported that M. De Giers has asked whether England will accept the responsibility for acts of the frontier tribes nominally under the control of the Amer. It is the intention of M. De Giers to leave Russia free to extend the frontier on the first excuse of tribal disorders."

Colonel Alekanoff, who commanded the Russians in their attack upon Penjeh, remains at Mary with 200 troops. The Russians have two batteries of infantry and 800 cavalry, with two batteries at Sarakum. They have strong outposts at Pul-Khatum and Zoljekar.

The new Afghan frontier line starts at a point north of Zoljekar and runs thence eastward to Chamanai Baid; from the latter place the line extends northward down the Kusk River to Gazit Khan, and proceeds thence eastward and south of Penjeh to Khoga Saleh.

In the House of Commons, this afternoon, Mr. Gladstone stated that he did not know whether Russia's answer concerning the Afghan frontier agreement reached by Lord Granville, the Earl of Kimberley, Baron De Sael and M. Lissar, and submitted to the Car for approval, had yet arrived in London. The negotiations between the two governments continues, Mr. Gladstone said, and the Government was unaware of any further Russian advance, the latest telegrams received making no mention of any advance.

The Occupation of Egypt.

LONDON, May 14.—Negotiations are proceeding with Turkey for the latter's occupation of Suakin and the Sudan on the following basis: The Porte engages to assist in suppressing the slave trade and in developing external commercial relations. Besides the formal proposals made through Felmi Paşa, if the Porte accepts, an English company will obtain the option of securing a concession to construct a railway to Berber, and will receive other trading rights. Earl Granville is also negotiating with the Italian Government concerning an alternative scheme for the occupation of the Red Sea littoral in the event of a failure to come to an agreement with the Porte. The Reform and Rassegna, of Rome, and other Liberal Italian papers are opposed to an Italian occupation of Egypt, unless England promises an armed support in the event of Italy's becoming involved in a European quarrel. The Italian military journal, Esercito, approves the occupation of Egypt by Italy.

THE ALLEGED DYNAMITERS.

Cunningham and Burton on Trial—Testimony of Inspector Jarvis.

LONDON, May 14.—The trial of Cunningham and Burton was resumed this morning. Inspector Jarvis testified that when the brown trunk which was removed from Cunningham's lodgings in Great Prescott street, and found in Burton's possession at the time the latter was arrested, was first searched in Burton's room, No detonator was found in it. The trunk, the witness said, was searched the second time at the police station, several days afterward, and the second investigation revealed a detonator stowed away in the trunk. The Inspector further testified that as far as he knew the trunk had remained securely locked between the time of the first and second search. He could not clearly say why the first examination failed to disclose the detonator, merely stating that it was only a cursory investigation. General Maydieu, on being closely questioned by the counsel for the prisoners, admitted that the detonator found in the brown trunk was not like the detonator found at the Charing Cross Railway station and elsewhere. Evidence in regard to the explosion at Westminster Hall then followed, and the court adjourned until to-morrow.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

The Suez Canal Commission.

PARIS, May 14.—The sub commission has agreed to leave the Pienary Suez Canal Commission to deal with the question of the supervision of the canal.

The New United States Minister.

PARIS, May 14.—Mr. Morton, the retiring United States Minister, to-day presented his letters of recall to President Grevy. Mr. Morton and M. Grevy then touched together. Afterward Mr. McLane presented his credentials to the President and delivered an address, to which M. Grevy replied welcoming the new Minister and thanking him for the sentiments expressed in his address. M. Grevy assured Mr. McLane that he would always find in France the most sympathetic co-operation in everything calculated to promote the welfare of the American Republic.

Mr. McLane, in his address, said: "I have the honor of presenting my credentials as Minister of the United States of America. I cordially share President Cleveland's sentiments of respect and friendship toward France and her government. Although little worthy of the high mission entrusted to me, all my efforts will be directed toward tightening the bond of unity existing between France and America."

Annuity to Princess Beatrice.

LONDON, May 14.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Mr. Gladstone moved and Sir Stafford Northcote seconded the granting of an annuity of 6,000 pounds to Princess Beatrice on the occasion of her forthcoming marriage. Mr. Labouchere opposed the motion. He thought the Queen should provide the annuity. The annuity was voted by 337 against 38. Mr. Gladstone in moving the annuity urged the House to bear in mind that Princess Beatrice was the last of the Queen's children for whom demand of this kind could be made. "The marriage of Princess Beatrice," continued the Prime Minister, "like all the previous marriages of Her Majesty's family, is based upon genuine attachment and affection. I submit the whole question of the civil list and future grants to royalty to a parliamentary committee at the next session."

An Evicted Irish Farmer Takes Horrible Revenge.

DUBLIN, May 14.—Much excitement has been caused throughout Galway and Roscommon Counties by the action of an evicted farmer of Ballinsale, which is situated in both counties. The farmer had been put off his holding under circumstances which increased his rage the more he thought of it. Finally he became desperate and decided upon revenge. He visited the bailiff who had performed the act of eviction and piled him with liquor until the official was drunk. The farmer then took the helpless bailiff and held him over the fire in the kitchen, which was fatally burned. Despite the barbarity of the farmer's revenge, he has the sympathy of a large number of the poor farmers in both counties.

British Influence at the Vatican.

DUBLIN, May 14.—United Ireland attributes the failure at Rome of the nomination of Dr. Walsh to the Archbishopric of Dublin, as successor to the late Cardinal McCabe, to the influence which Mr. Erskine, the special British agent, has exerted at the Vatican. Dr. Walsh's political sympathies are with the Parnellites, who are much vexed over the election of the Holy See, especially as they believe it has been accomplished by British intrigue. The Archbishopric of Dublin," says United Ireland, "has apparently become the hereditary gift of Dublin Castle."

The Site of the American Exhibition.

LONDON, May 14.—The Executive Council of the American Exhibition, to be held here in 1886, after examining the merits of various sites for the exhibition, to-day gave preference to that at Earl Court, Kensington, in close proximity to the site of the Kensington Animal Exhibition, and of equal area, about twenty-two acres. The American Exhibition will have its own railway station on its own grounds, and be in direct communication with all the railway system of the United Kingdom. Visitors will be enabled by the arrangements to see both the British Colonial and the American Exhibitions without going from under cover.

The People Incensed.

LIMERICK, May 14.—Because of the frequency of assaults committed upon the soldiers in the streets of the city, the militia patrols have been armed with rifles. This has intensified the hostility of the people against the soldiers, and the Mayor and Magistrates will petition the Government to rescind the order arming the patrols.

To Have His Pay Increased.

LONDON, May 14.—The Marquis of Hartington, the Minister of War, has ordered that increased pay be given to Colonel Remington, who assumed the command of the Voyagers on the death of Colonel Kennedy.

Don't Like It.

HONG KONG, May 14.—The Russian Minister at Peking is much concerned over the English occupation of Quelpauw. Vladivostok is closed to foreign vessels unless brought in by Russian pilots.

King Leopold's Visit.

BERLIN, May 14.—The Gazette announces that King Leopold, of Belgium, will visit the Court of Berlin at the end of the month.

TONGKIN, May 14.—The brigade of guards has been ordered home.
